SANTA RUN – AIV x Masterreise x GESO

Together with the GESO and the Masterreise, the AIV is once again organizing the Santa-Run this autumn. It is the counterpart to the famous Beer-Rally in summer.

The concept of the Santa-Run will be the same as the Beer-Rally, but with mulled wine instead of beer and a few other specials ;)

When: Thursday, 05.12.24 at 17:00

Where: Starting point in front of Loch Ness

Costs: The possession of an AIV or GESO cup is required, you can also buy them on site

Theme: SANTA

Registration: Anmeldung Santa Run

SANTA RUN HELPERS REGISTRATION – AIV x Masterreise x GESO

For the Santa-Run we are looking for a few eager helpers who could take over a post. For each post 2-4 people will be assigned as helpers. You can register either alone or together with your colleagues. We will provide you with drinks, mulled wine and snacks in the evening :)

You should be at the HXE at 16:30, so that we can explain everything to you and so that you have enough time to go to your post.

When: Thursday, 05.12.2024 from 16:30

Where: HXE, later Höggerberg

Registration: Helpers Santa-Run

Lunchkolloquium Emch+Berger Gruppe with Aperitif

Senior Construction Management for the ASTRA Maintenance Project Büel-Seedorf, Uri

The 2.3-kilometer stretch of national highway between Büel and Seedorf, located south of the Seelisberg Tunnel in the Canton of Uri, is undergoing complete renovation after more than 40 years of service, at a cost of approximately CHF 53 million.

For ASTRA (Federal Roads Office) standards, this is a relatively short highway segment. However, the high number of engineering structures makes it particularly complex. Due to the steep hillside terrain, half of this stretch is carried by six viaducts, interspersed with sections of roadway supported by 23 retaining and wall structures up to 18 meters high. The project also includes the Fischlauri avalanche protection gallery, two culverts, an underpass for a cantonal road, and three noise barriers.

As a critical north-south axis, this route accommodates around 22,500 vehicles daily, with significantly higher traffic volumes during the summer months. All construction work must, therefore, be carried out while maintaining active traffic flow. These operational constraints, combined with the weather-sensitive nature of many tasks, place high demands on the construction schedule and site logistics. Emch+Berger leads the engineering consortium responsible for planning and provides part of the on-site construction management team. As a construction manager, you are at the heart of the action, experiencing firsthand how years of planning come to life on the ground. In addition to office work, meetings, and site inspections, each day brings new challenges. Something unexpected always occurs—and that's what makes the work of a construction manager so engaging.

Topics: Maintenance, Transportation Infrastructure (National Roads), Engineering Structures, Execution, Construction Management

Faculty Aperitif

As every semester, this fall semester will also feature the traditional faculty aperitif organized by AIV & GESO for the entire D-BAUG. It will take place on Wednesday, December 11, 2023, in HIF C80 starting at 6:00 PM, directly after the department conference. We cordially invite you to join us in celebrating the upcoming end of the semester and to enjoy a casual conversation with professors, lecturers, and staff from D-BAUG. It's a great opportunity to meet outside of the usual student-teacher roles!

Of course, there will also be a delicious aperitif buffet. We look forward to seeing you there in large numbers!

Date: Wednesday, 11. December 2024

Time: at 18:00 o'clock

Where: HIF C80

Registration: Not necessary

Nic's Hütte AIV x GESO

Advent is mulled wine time! Once again Nic's Hütte is on the Piazza. AIV will be hosting as expected an evening together with GESO. Come by and drink free mulled wine with the AIV (or GESO) mug.

When: Friday, 9.12.

Where: Piazza Höggerberg

Registration: Not required!

However, we're always grateful for helping hands. As a thank-you, you can look forward to free raclette. 😊 If you're interested, feel free to sign up using the following link.
